

Cité des Jeunes A.-M.-Sormany

The Cité des Jeunes A.-M.-Sormany (CDJ) is the biggest high school in Northwestern New Brunswick, where approximately 99% of the population is French speaking. It is located in Edmundston, an urban area of more than 20 000 residents, where the state of Maine is just across the river and the province of Quebec is less than 20 km away. Forestry is one of the major industries in the area.

If you like skiing, snowboarding or other winter activities, this is the place to be. The Mont Farlagne ski hill is within city limits, and there are many cross-country skiing and snowmobile trails. The city also has a modern sports complex, bicycle and walking trails, as well as several indoor and outdoor skating rinks. Edmundston is host to many cultural activities, including an annual Jazz & Blues Festival, concerts and performances featuring theatre, dance and music of every genre. In addition to school activities, the community itself offers competitive figure skating, skiing, snowboarding and climbing clubs.
