2501 22 Street, Nanton, Alberta T0L 1R0

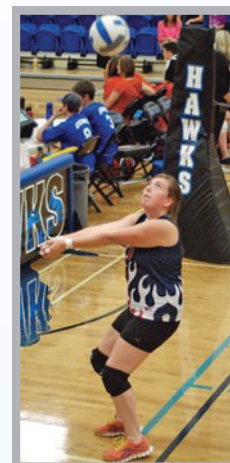

ABOUT THE SCHOOL

J. T. Foster School (JTF) has a strong sense of tradition offering a student centered climate and high academic standards in a friendly, welcoming atmosphere. Located in the town of Nanton, home to 2125 residents, J. T. Foster serves a population of approximately 200 students, grades 7 through 12 from Nanton, the nearby town of Stavely and rural students from the Municipal Districts of Willow Creek & Ranchland. J. T. Foster has a staff of 22, including professional and support staff. We have strong community backing and are supported by an active School Council and Casino group as well as many other community service clubs.

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY

With surrounding prairies to the east, picturesque, rolling foothills to the west, easy access to the City of Calgary to the North and close proximity to the U. S. to the south Nanton and area offer country charm. Nanton is home to a number of unique attractions including the Bomber Command Museum of Canada, Nanton Candy Store, Antique & Art Walk of Alberta, The Canadian Grain Elevator Discovery Centre and Museum of Miniatures among others. Some of the many facilities in town include the Tom Hornecker Recreation Centre (indoor arena, racquetball court, gymnasium, curling rink & seasonal outdoor pool), the Nanton Golf Course and Nanton Agricultural Society Grounds.
